Special Group Formed

CATHEDRAL CITY — After four years of study and investigation, the Cathedral City Chamber of Commerce last night initiated a program to proceed with the possible incorporation of the community to the southeast of Palm Springs.

A special committee, chairmaned by Paul Clark, and containing four members — Claude Cobb, L. C. Lewis, Ivan Sharpe, and Bert Lamb — was appointed, and an appropriation of $1,000 was put at the committee's disposal to cover costs of an educational campaign to acquaint the people with the proposed incorporation action.

EARLIER, AT THE same meeting, new officers of the Chamber were elected by the board of directors. Included were Courtland Hadden, president; Wayne C. Kizer, first vice president; John W. Down, second vice president; Warner S. Moon, secretary, and Orvil Zappe, treasurer.

Following the election of officers, the new Board of Directors made a thorough study of the report on incorporation made by the Los Angeles Bureau of Municipal Research, and immediately launched its campaign to better acquaint the people of the area with the pros and cons of incorporation.

THE STUDY BY the Municipal Research Bureau cost the community in the neighborhood of $2,000. The new incorporation committee will start educational talks by setting up speakers for public meetings, service club meetings and social affairs. The speakers will answer questions and talk on the advantages and disadvantages of incorporation.

AF Recovers First Nose Cone From Thor-Able

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (UPI) — A two-stage test rocket hurled its experimental nose cone 5,000 miles down the Atlantic tracking range early today and into the hands of a waiting recovery team. It was the first recovery of a nose cone fired at intercontinental range.

In a Defense Department statement released here by the Air Force officials said the futuristic nose cone was retrieved from the South Atlantic near Ascension Island, a little more than two hours after the Thor-Able rocket blasted off from Cape Canaveral early today.

THE STATEMENT said that although recovery of the cone was a secondary test objective, it was an "additional bonus to the test program as it will provide physical verification of telemetry data received."

It was the first Thor-Able cone that has been found in seven firings of that rocket on nose cone experiments.

Ascension Island is halfway between the coasts of Africa and Brazil, more than 5,000 miles from the cape.

OFFICIALS SAID that "as on previous flights to ICBM range, the nose cone was highly instrumented and provided data throughout its flight and re-entry" into the earth's dense atmosphere.

Assailant Wounds Papal Bodyguard

VATICAN CITY — (UPI) — A former member of the Swiss Guard, the elite bodyguard of the Pope, shot and wounded the commander of the unit today. The former guardsman was injured in a struggle with his former comrades who rushed to the commander's assistance.

Vatican doctors at first thought the assailant also had shot himself, sources said. But later he was found to have been injured in a fight with other guardsmen who had come to their chief's rescue. High Vatican sources said the shooting was done with a pistol smuggled through Vatican sentries into the heart of the city-state where Pope John XXIII lives and works.

THE SOURCES said Col. Robert Nuenlist, 48, the commander, was wounded at least twice in the neck and body. The sources said he would recover in about two weeks. The sources identified the assailant as Adolph Ruckers, 34, who suffered injuries of the nose and forehead after shooting Nuenlist. They said he would be hospitalized for about a week.

THE SOURCES SAID Ruckers, who came from Nuenlist's own Swiss canton of Argau, had been dismissed from the guard some time ago "for reasons of health." They said he had paid repeated visits to Nuenlist since then in an attempt to be reinstated. The colorful Swiss Guards have constituted the hard core of the papal bodyguard since the 16th century when the first mercenaries were brought from Switzerland to protect the lives of the popes from antipapist forces.

A Swiss Guard stands outside the doors of Pope John's own private apartments 24 hours a day.

BOARD TO SPEED NEW SCHOOL HERE

Palm Springs school officials today prepared for action on the current "top priority" item of their five-year expansion program — construction of new elementary school.

Board of Education members are expected to start proceedings for acquisition of a new school site at their regular meeting here Thursday night.

CONSTRUCTION OF the school is expected to begin as soon as the board chooses one of two locations now under consideration, school officials said.

The priority project has been allocated $365,000 from the $2,138,000 bond issue of 1957.

Board of Education members met with City Planning Director Hy Ranes and planning commissioners Monday night to discuss the relationship between school expansion and the city's proposed Master Plan.

SCHOOLS SUPT. Dwight Twist said the discussion indicated that school building plans are in harmony with a proposed development pattern blueprinted in the Master Plan by planning consultant Simon Eisner.

De. Twist said that new school facilities are immediately required to relieve the "tremendous pressure" now being exerted upon Cielo Vista School classrooms by a steadily mounting student population.

ORIGINALLY, THE board had stamped a Section 14 school as a priority project. But long delays envisioned in the settlement of Indian lands, which are currently undergoing federal legislation for equalization, caused the board to temporarily shelve the project.

Board attention is now focused on the construction of a new school to meet immediate demands, Twist said.

Construction of the new elementary school plant will start "as soon as the board can acquire a site," Dr. Twist reported.

He said the district hopes to have the new school ready for occupancy by the start of the spring, 1960, semester or, at the latest, by the middle of that semester.

THE CHANCELLOR described the most recent Soviet proposals on the question of Berlin and for a peace treaty with the two German governments as designed to lead to the eventual communization of all Western Europe.

The 83-year-old chancellor, in a move that surprised Germany and the world, announced Tuesday he was leaving office to accept the Christian Democratic Union's nomination for federal president.

HE IS EXPECTED to remain in office as a lame duck leader until he takes over the largely symbolic job of president on Sept. 12. His election was assured because of his strength in the Federal Assembly which meets in West Berlin July 1.

There still was no certainty as to who would succeed Adenauer. Until recently Economics Minister Ludwig Erhard, 62, the man who performed an economic miracle by restoring war-torn Germany to prosperity, was considered the most likely choice.

PEIPING RADIO, which has stepped up its broadcasts to India since Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru granted diplomatic asylum to the Dalai Lama, said today the god-king of Tibet was in such poor health when last seen in Lhasa it was "feared that he might die."

Indian reports said the Dalai Lama was in good health though tired when he reached India.

RELIABLE REPORTS said the rebellion against Peiping was growing daily and that an increasingly large number of Tibetans were helping the Khampa tribesmen, secretly if not openly.

The reports said it appeared unlikely the Chinese could wipe out the pockets of resistance because of the Khampas' knowledge of the mountainous terrain and their skill at mountaineering acquired during the years as nomadic herdsman.

Adenauer Says to Keep Leadership

Reports to Nation That Presidency Has Vast Powers

BONN, Germany — (UPI) — Chancellor Konrad Adenauer served notice today he intends to continue leadership of Free Germany if elected to the figurehead post of president.

Adenauer told the nation barely 24 hours after his decision to retire from the chancellorship that the president's powers are "much greater than one usually believes."

HE SAID HE decided to seek election to the presidency "to insure the continuity of our policies for many years."

He added that the presidency's "rights and duties" were underlined both here and abroad.

The statement in a national TV and radio address substantiated reports from his political colleagues that Adenauer will continue to exercise great influence over government policies, particularly in the field of international relations, even after he leaves the chancellorship for the next door palace of the president next September.

BUT JIM SCHLECHT, Palm Springs attorney for the West Virginia steel executive, said Raese and his three sons are now back in Morgantown, W. Va.

Two of Raese's sons, Richard Jr., 10, and John, 8, were subjects of an attempted abduction allegedly ordered by Raese's former wife Mrs. Jane Greer Kelly. Private Detective Richard Moulton, 49, and Charles Lewis, 33, were charged with child stealing March 29 when they took the boys from their father's rented Village home. The charges were dismissed Monday when Raese and his sons failed to appear in court.

JUDGE WAITE said the warrant for Raese's arrest was requested by Los Angeles attorney C. H. Older on behalf of Mrs. Lewis. Judge Waite approved the warrant ordering that Raese and the boys be held for an Indian Superior Court child custody hearing next Tuesday.

However, Judge Waite pointed out that the warrant is a civil matter and is not enforceable outside the State of California.

Detective L. Robert White said there is little likelihood the warrant will ever be served because Raese has apparently left the state.

HIS THEORY was confirmed by Schlecht, who said he believes Raese left here last week.

Judge Waite's action means that two states are now virtually off-limits to Raese, who has legal guardianship of his children in Morgantown.

Raese faces a contempt of court in Miami, Fla., by the Circuit Court which gave Mrs. Kelly sole custody of all three children in 1957.

If he sets foot in Florida, Raese faces a six month jail sentence and a $10,000 fine. In California, he faces immediate detention for child custody action here.

WARRANT OUT FOR FATHER IN 'CHILD THEFT' TWIST

Palm Springs police are today armed with a warrant for the arrest of steel executive Richard Raese, but officers said there is little likelihood that they'll be able to serve it.

Riverside Superior Court Judge Russell W. White said he issued a civil warrant ordering that Raese and his three children be held for court action in a new chapter of the Raese child-stealing case.

Gigi Concert Set Thursday

Two of America's most highly regarded vocal talents—Nadine Conner and Eugene Conley—will aid the Palm Springs Community Concert Association in capping its initial season here tomorrow night.

The pair, both stars of a multitude of opera performances with the Metropolitan and other companies, will be presented in recital at 8:15 p.m., tomorrow, in the Palm Springs High School Auditorium.

BOTH MISS Conner and Conley have achieved musical greatness on an international scale by virtue of their appearances with foreign opera companies. But it has been the critics of this nation—particularly the hard-hearted, cold-blooded New York delegation—that has personally assured both the attractive soprano and moustachioed tenor permanent places in the world of operatic music.

A native Californian, Nadine Conner launched her singing career several years before she wound up in opera—her first start coming in the now-defunct the soprano has been in and out of the Met a number of times.

Her voice, regarded as one of the most versatile in modern music annals, has been used largely as a dramatic lead but she has also sung the difficult coloratura roles in many operas.

MASSACHUSETTS—born Conley didn't aim at an operatic career. He started, instead, with the Boston Male Choir, moved to soloist position with the Commonwealth Symphony, started singing on radio and wound up with a bid to the San Carlos Opera Company. He jumped to the New Opera Company, then to the Cincinnati Opera Company and—following a stint with the U.S. Air Force during World War II—resumed his singing, finally moving into the Met.

His calls to operatic assignments have been numerous and have covered virtually every one of the dozen or more "major" operas that are considered repertoire for top singers.

BOTH MISS Conner and Conley,

EUGENE CONLEY

as noted, have enjoyed singular successes abroad.

The soprano sang her first international role in 1933 when she was guest of the Holland Festival and sang Susanna in "Figaro." She has also sung in Puerto Rico, Canada, Hawaii, Europe, the Near East and the Far East. Her travels have won her the title of "Darling of the American Ex-Los Angeles Opera Company in 1939. Since 1941—when she debuted in Mozart's "Magic Flute," press.

Conley has also visited the Holland Festival where he essayed the arduous role of the Rake in "The Rake's Progress" seven times in 1957. His international appearances include engagements with La Scala Opera Company at Milan—where the opera "Puritani" was revived for him and where he was the first American tenor ever to open a season—the Stockholm Royal Opera, other leading European opera houses and in many other companies in this continent.

RADIO AND television appearances still consume much of the time for both Miss Conner and Conley. She has been a repeat guest many times of "Voice of Firestone" and appeared in the GE Christmas Eve telecast of Stephen Vincent Benet's "A Child Is Born."

Conley has also been seen in guest appearances on several television programs in recent years. Both artists will stay in town briefly during their one-night recitals at the high school auditorium. They will be accompanied in their presentation here by pianist Henry Jackson.

THRIFTY HOSTS FOREIGN GROUP

Thirty foreign students, scientists and professors, representing countries from all over the world, made a field trip to Thrifty Drug Stores recently, under the auspices of the UCLA Institute of Industrial Relations.

The group, now studying at California universities and colleges, toured Thrifty's office and warehouse facilities, discussed work problems with employees and enjoyed frank and informal talks with management officials of the West Coast drug, variety, and junior department store chain.

THE FUTURE foreign opinion leader from the continents of Europe, Africa, Asia, Australia and South America were given the opportunity for seminar type discussions with Thrifty executives as a part of UCLA's three-day Foreign Student Conference.

The conference, supported by the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, Los Angeles Federation of Labor, AFL-CIO, and other community organizations is designed to give the students an overall picture of the problems and achievements of the American free enterprise system.

IN ADDITION to their work at Thrifty, the students studied manufacturing at American Can Co., and leading government, labor and educational leaders worked with the students in a series of lectures and discussion groups on the UCLA campus.

Designed to draw a clear picture of the effective human and industrial relations in a democratic free enterprise society for the intellectual and influential leaders of foreign countries, the UCLA Foreign Students Conference is one of the first major conferences for foreign students in the United States.

Thrifty Drug Stores Vice President Manny Borun said, "At a time when it is vital we publicize and explain our way of life to the rapidly growing countries of the world, we at Thrifty are indeed honored to be able to cooperate with the Institute of Industrial Relations and the Foreign Students Conference at UCLA."

Mayor Officially Welcomes Standard Steel Delegates

Mayor Frank Rogert today directed an official welcome to dealers and distributors of Standard Steel Corp., who are meeting at El Mirador this week.

Mayor Rogert officially proclaimed today as "Standard Steel Corporation Progress Day" and "Welcome Day for Standard Steel Corp. Dealers and Distributors."

Distributors for the company's asphalt plants from all parts of the nation are holding their annual sales conference here through April 9.

Morgan to Tell 'Desert Hot Springs Story'

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — Los Angeles Mayor Frank Morgan will tell "The Desert Hot Springs Story" to representatives of Riverside County's 29 Chambers of Commerce at noon, April 21, when the Chambers hold their monthly meeting here.

The meeting is scheduled for noon at Carr's Restaurant, Fifth and Palm Drive, in Desert Hot Springs, according to Bill Hughes, president of the county-wide organization.

At 10:30 a.m., directors of the organization will hold a business session in the same location. The luncheon will cost $2 per person.

Cotton Carnival Royalty Named

MEXICALI — Two young Mexican citizens have been named to rule over the Third Annual Calexico-Mexicali Cotton Carnival on April 23-25.

More than 120 persons attended the formal ball this week that saw Edward Montiel, 22, and Elsa Klamroth, 19, receive the crowns of sovereignty of the festival.

The festival draws fans from both sides of the International Boundary at Calexico-Mexicali into a two-day celebration of the good that has come from cotton.

Room for Guests

BOSTON (UPI) — The Barrons live in a six-room ranch-style home. But sometimes as many as 40 relatives and friends sit down to dinner in the dining room.

Superior Judge Jennie Loftman Barron and her lawyer-banker husband Samuel wanted a house big enough for two but big enough to seat 40 for dinner. They solved the problem by having large dining and living rooms that open into each other in L-shaped fashion.

One of Several

Poisoning Emphasizes Castor Bean Danger

A beautiful tropical plant — sometimes taking the form of a tree — which grows pods containing beans that taste like peanut butter, can be very attractive to children — but beware, they are deadly.

This is the castor bean plant. Literally thousands of these trees are growing in the yards of homes in the desert resort area, and their beauty lends especially well to the tropical landscaping of desert homes.

RECENTLY FOUR local children were rushed to Desert Hospital to have their stomachs pumped after eating the beans which grew on a plant near their home.

Letty, Norman and Kenneth MacDonald, and Hollis Paulson, 3, 2 and 4 years old respectively, were released from Desert Hospital and reported in good condition after Dr. Lee Palmer pumped that poison out of their stomachs.

THIS IS THE time of year that the plant is dangerous, especially to small children, who see the reddish pod and pick it. Inside the pod there are seeds about one-inch long and have the attractive taste of peanuts.

Dr. E. M. Stone, Riverside County Health officer, reported that the castor bean plant is only one of more than 400 common plants that are poisonous, but added that the castor bean plant is second only to the oleander.

DR. STONE reported that far more poisonings are reported from the oleander than the castor bean plant, and said that the smaller child the more deadly the castor bean could be.

Kaye Hall, director of parks and recreation for the City of Palm Springs, said that there was no legislation pending to do away with the plant in the desert resort area, but in many areas of Riverside-San Bernardino counties there is.

HALL SAID that there was a way to stop the production of the bean and to retain the tree, but it means that each year the plant must be sprayed with a chemical, such as "Fruitec," which kills the blossom and retards the growth of the fruit.

Cities use the spray, a fruit hormone, on olive trees and plants to keep them from bearing fruit.

Hall said the sure way to keep children from eating the poison beans is to keep them away from the plants — especially this time of year.

ROBERT HENWOOD, administrator at Desert Hospital, reported that the four cases here were the first ones ever treated at the local hospital.

Last year at this time the death of a small child in San Bernardino brought about legislation there outlawing the growing of the plant, and at the same time the counties of Alameda and Contra Costa started a survey and checked 2,000 cases of plant poisonings. Only two of the poisonings were from the castor bean plant.

HOWEVER, DR. Stone reported that unless the poisoning is very acute, the case may never come to the attention of county medical officers.

In more severe cases the patient has symptoms of convulsions and diarrhea, while the lesser cases cause a diarrhetic condition.

The castor bean is used commercially to make castor oil, and when it is processed for the oil the "ricinus" poison is taken out of it.

During the year 1899 the U. S. Post Office Department experimented with motor vehicle mail delivery.

TEXANS AID WITH BUILDING ALASKA

By AL LE ANCE

Next to Texas, they've got more Texans in Alaska than anywhere, claims Mrs. Robert B. Atwood, an Alaskan statehood pioneer.

It's a fact most Alaskans—and Texans—are proud of. "We've got more Texans than any other state," Mrs. Atwood proudly confided, "and they all feel right at home here."

WHICH IS ONLY fitting, since the new "Baby State" is the biggest, wildest and ripest plum to come along since Jim Bowie thumbed his knife at Santa Ana.

The transplanted Texans who make themselves right to home in this new, rugged wilderness are really more than welcome to pitch their tents and put their oil dollars to work.

"Our biggest developers are Texans," Mrs. Atwood explained, "and we need every one of them."

MRS. ATWOOD is a native Alaskan and her husband publishes the Anchorage Times. Both were leading figures in the battle for Alaskan statehood. Naturally, she takes a keen interest in her state's progress.

Right now, she's primarily concerned with the development of 100 million acres of raw land deeded to the new state by the federal government.

"Our biggest problem is developing this land," she said. "We need men with strength and imagination, but we don't want land speculators."

MRS. ATWOOD, who was basking in the Palm Springs sun while visiting at Oasis Hotel, nourishes a strong dislike for absentee land owners who pull revenue out of the state but do not contribute towards its progress.

She's particularly vexed with the absentee controllers of Alaska's fishing industry, the state's biggest industry. These individuals she charged, formed the only Congressional lobby against Alaskan statehood.

Mrs. Atwood explained that fishing interests feared state legislation outlawing their "fish traps," a means of snaring vast quantities of seafood which, she said, threatens to denude the state of one of its greatest resources.

ALASKA IS SIMILARLY rich in other resources. Oil, for instance, is found in plentiful quantities, which makes this a natural stamping ground for those traveling Texans.

Nine major oil companies are poking holes through the sod, snow and ice and construction is a booming industry.

Frakes Visit Donald Walkers

PALM DESERT—Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Frakes of Los Angeles (Mr. Frakes is a former administrative director of the "Toyota" automobile company) spent the weekend as houseguests of the Donald Walkers at their home on Chocoma Street. The Frakes will return to the desert for the summer months.

Last year 4,250,000 automobiles were scrapped.

'POLYNESIAN' IDEA TO BE STRESSED

One of the most breath-taking array of county and community feature exhibits ever presented at any fair or exposition will greet visitors attending the 1959 National Orange Show, April 23 through May 3, in San Bernardino.

Using more golden California oranges than ever before and designed around the exposition's "Polynesian Paradise" theme — in a special tribute and welcome to the nation's newest state, Hawaii — all these displays in the huge exhibition hall will take sight-seers on a magic trip to the lush tropical islands of the South Seas and exotic lands of the Pacific Ocean.

IN A NEW AND unusual approach, all feature exhibits will be entirely new — only to be seen at the 1959 National Orange Show.

Dominate feature in the exhibit hall will be the exposition's 40-foot-high volcano, using oranges, treated with black-light paint, to simulate flowing lava. A South Seas village will be constructed at the base of the volcano, with the entire set surrounded by a pool of water.

UNUSUAL LIGHTING and sound effects throughout the entire exhibition hall will be concentrated here as the dramatic eruption of the volcano is followed by an actual tropical rain storm coming from snow-white spun glass clouds hanging above.

Many other unusual startling Polynesian displays are being planned for visitors by Design Enterprises of Riverside, the decorating firm constructing the entire layout.

Some of the communities, counties and organizations sponsoring the larger feature displays include Fontana-Rialto, San Diego and Imperial counties and the Tournament of Roses.

SMALLER, BUT equally as exotic exhibits are being sponsored by such communities and organizations as Yorba Linda, Riverside, San Bernardino County Fair, Farmers Fair of Riverside County, and Pure Gold.

In commenting upon the new approach to the National Orange Show's feature displays, Manager G. Walter Glass said many of the communities liked the idea of having one professional set designer and decorator build their exhibit to coordinate in such a dramatic way with the exposition's central theme.

"It actually enables them to sponsor an exhibit at less cost without the added expenses of staffing, moving material, construction, maintenance and servicing. The exposition's substantial cash premium awards reduces the overall cost to a nominal figure."

Campus Capers

Hi there!! Things have really been buzzing at the high school lately. The spring sports, baseball, swimming, tennis and track, are here and there's a warm spirit that comes with spring in the air.

Some of the many great activities that have been going on include two assemblies. On Wednesday, there was an awards assembly for the basketball players. Charles Jordan, a one time all CIF basketball player, was the guest speaker. It was a most impressive assembly.

On the following day, Thursday, Palm Springs High School was privileged to have Congressman D. S. Sand speak to the student body on the opportunities of being an American, and also about the future of America being in the hands of our youth. Everyone found his talk most interesting.

Friday night was a big night in the lives of many of the high school students. The Senior Class presented its annual Senior Frolic.

WHEN MAN HUNTS BEAR, that's not news, but when bear hunts man—look out! Lulu Belle, a 250-pound trained Himalayan bear, will hunt men and fires in her Bruin Fire Department costume when the Idyllwild Bear Festival is held on April 11-12. Clark McDermott, who has trained the carnivore for her work, has just returned from a Hawaiian tour with the educated bruin.

At Joshua Tree

Fastest Turtles Set For Races

JOSHUA TREE — Some of the world's fastest shellbacks are currently prepping for the 14th Annual Turtle Races at Joshua Tree. They'll be off and running May 2 and 3 in Joshua Tree's Sportsman's Park.

Featuring the desert area's greatest gathering of high-speed turtles, the annual tortoise tournament takes place in a full-scale racing park rated as a shellback's answer to Santa Anita.

THE TURTLE JAMBOREE is the keystone of a two-day program here that boasts a Saturday morning parade and a Saturday night dance, billed as the nation's only "turtle toddle."

Thousands of turtle-cheering spectators are expected to be on hand for festivities that open with a big western parade at 11 a.m., May 2. A chuckwagon dinner follows and the first turtle race gets under way at 1:30 p.m. the same day.

Turtle races will be staged at half-hour intervals on both days of the program. All races will be staged in a special constructed, 50-foot circle.

THE RACERS ARE placed in a wire mesh pen in the middle of the circle. The pen is raised with the starting bell and the first three turtles to reach the edge of the circle are proclaimed winners.

Anyone may enter the race by drawing a turtle from the turtle corral at Sportsman's park. Entry fee is 50 cents per entrant, and all turtles must be returned at the end of the race.

Race officials offered the handy tip that the desert tortoise is usually the speediest entry.

Rate Perkins and Armstead Even In Tonight's Bout

CHICAGO — EPP — Unranked lightweight Eddie Perkins and Paul Armstead bid for a place in the top ten tonight in a "pick it 10" round bout on the weekly television show.

The background on the battlers indicated an even match. Each is 22 years old and each was a standout amateur before he turned pro.

Armstead, the California lightweight champion, was unbeaten as an amateur and has won 41 of 46 pro bouts, 12 by knockouts, with one draw. Perkins, from Chicago, won 40 of 46 amateur bouts and has won 22 of 27 pro outings, 4 by knockouts.

Perkins has been knocked down once, in his first pro bout, which he lost, and Armstead never has been off his feet.

Sports Car Club Plans Mountain Jaunt April 26

Next monthly rallye of the Palm Springs Sports Car Club is set for April 26 with a run through the San Jacinto mountains as the route.

The club met Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Al Gardiner with President Carroll Waller presiding. An interesting colored motion picture of the Grand Prix D'Europe, 1958, was shown.

Dr. Clarence Smith presented the film through the courtesy of the Castrol Motors Oil company.

UCLA Wins, 8-3

LOS ANGELES — UCLA's baseball team collected 14 hits Tuesday to hand Pepperdine an 8-3 loss in a non-conference game at Joe E. Brown Field.

SLIDING UNDER cut-off peg from San Diego shortstop is Sacramento second baseman Chico Heron. Heron not only beat the throw on this play, but scored as Padre third sacker Fred Hatfield lost the ball. Picture shows first inning action in game won—in the ninth frame—by the Padres, 4-3.

Padres Deal Solons Fifth Straight Loss Here, 4 to 3

Punch Across Winning Score In Top of 9th

The Sacramento Solons ran their losing streak to five straight yesterday as San Diego punched across one run in the top of the ninth inning and won, 4-3, at the Polo Grounds here.

The Sacs head for Brawley today—and a tilt with Portland—but they'll be back at the home stand tomorrow with another game with the Beavers ahead of them.

NOEL NICKELSEN pitched well for the Solons but wind-blown balls and broken-bat hits hurt him when it counted most. At that, he went the full nine innings, the first Sacramento pitcher to do so.

Mike Krsnich hit a ground rule double that took a one-top bounce over the center field fence. In San Diego's own brand-new ballpark, the ball would probably have gone over the fence. But the runners were left stranded after Krsnich's "triple" and that cost the Solons heavily.

PITCHER JIM DAVIS, who was 6-5 for Seattle last year, joined the Solons yesterday and expects to be in shape for duties later in the week. There appears to be some question on the age of the southpaw hurler since he is listed by Sac Manager Bobby Elliott as 33, but one Sacramento sports writer—let's call him "Just Plain Bob"—insists on maintaining that Davis is either 39 in his paper or 34 on the telephone.

"It's getting," one was close to the heart of this Sacramento juggernaut said, "so you can't trust the sportswriters any more than you can the managers."

Also in camp are Buddy Peterson, a shortstop who has played around in the PCL and was with Vancouver last year, and Bobby Jacobs, a young second baseman, who worked for Austin in the Texas League last year. Peterson played in yesterday's tilt and Elliott has promised Jacobs action as soon as the boy "gets ready."

Line score yesterday:

San Diego	300	015	001	—	4	9	4
Sacramento	101	100	000	—	3	1	2

Thunderbird Course Teems with Players

A couple of hundred golfers took advantage of yesterday's free practice round at Thunderbird Country Club to tune up for today's choose-up play and tomorrow's opening of the Women's Fifth Annual "Out of This World" tournament.

No scores were recorded in yesterday's session, officials at the luxuriously appointed course reported.

SCORES WILL BE kept on today's 18-hole Scotch foursome which is to be operated on the Chapman system. Most of the teams that will see action in the three-day event will be on hand for the foursome play.

Member Fitz Binnion, who collaborated with guest Frank Gosard to win last year's "Out of This World" action with a 116 net for the 36-hole fray, will carry a 17-stroke handicap into the Thursday opening day round. He'll play with Bill Bass, who has a six-stroke handicap.

APPROXIMATELY 260 players are expected to turn out for the fifth renewal of the Thunderbird classic with a three-day span expected to cut playing time effectively enough to prevent a recurrence of last year's after-dark finishes that marred the two-day spectacle.

An "Out of This World" cocktail party is to follow the choose-up from 6:30 to 8 p.m. under the Thunderbird tent.

Daytona Beach Track Closed as Result 2 Deaths

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (UPI) — The new Daytona Beach International Speedway has been temporarily put off-limits for roadster-type racers following the death of two of America's top big car drivers.

Speedway president Bill France said a 300-mile race featuring Indianapolis type cars scheduled July 4 would not be held. Instead, he said, there would be a substitute 250-mile late model stock car race.

Racing director Henry Banks of the United States Auto Club said in Indianapolis the bit car race was tentatively switched to Raleigh, N.C.

Banks said Daytona would not be used by roadster-type cars pending "research and development."

Veteran driver Marshall Teague and 1958 "rookie of the year" George Amick were killed in accidents on the fast 2½ mile asphalt track which opened here only last February.

WARNS FISHERMEN OF NEW LIMIT ON TROUT THIS MONTH

Jack E. Bedwell of the State Fish and Game board issued a reminder and a warning to local fishermen that the new trout limit of five fish went into effect April 4 and remains in force until May 1.

"We are enforcing that new regulation," he said. After May 2 until October 31 the limit is ten.

San Francisco Area Swept by Pennant Fever

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Pennant fever, even before the first ball is tossed out, floated around the San Francisco Bay Area today — right from Giant Manager Bill Rigney down to the lowliest rooter in the bleachers today.

"If the rookies of 1958 can play as well in 1959—and take advantage of the things they learned while booting away at least a dozen games last year—then the Giants will be in the thick of the pennant fight."

That's the battle cry here and the theory was given a great boost with the recent acquisition of pitcher Sad Sam Jones.

The idea is that Rigney did a great job managing the club to third place last year when he had only one outstanding pitcher — Johnny Antonelli.

This season he can start off with Antonelli; follow him with Jack Sanford, Jones and either lefty Mike McCormick of "soft stuff" Stu Miller.

"It will be a pleasure to have a pitching staff that I can rotate with a degree of confidence," says Rigney.

Sell-outs at Seals Stadium, of course, are the order of the day—and as long as the Giants stay in contention, buying a ticket for a ball game in San Francisco will be as easy as finding a clear summer day.

Anti-Fatigue Drug Banned By AAU Rule

Athletes Using It Will Be Barred From Competition

NEW YORK (UPI) — A new drug which might help athletes break world records was frowned upon today by a high official in amateur sports.

Dan Ferris, honorary secretary-treasurer of the Amateur Athletic Union, said any athlete found using a drug would be ineligible for any competition under AAU rules.

Unusual fatigue-inhibiting properties of the new drug—known as t-h-a-m—was discovered by two government scientists, who said physiologists believe it would enable athletes to establish new speed records in long distance running and swimming and other type competition. Its previous usage was limited to making soaps and detergents.

FERRIS, WHO HAS been connected with amateur athletics for over 50 years, emphasized that neither AAU nor International Federation rulings permit anyone to enter an event under the influence of a drug.

"Drugs to stimulate athletic prowess are nothing new," Ferris said. "I've been hearing reports of their usage for the past four or five years."

Dr. Robert Galambos, chief of the Walter Reed Army Institute of Research's neurophysiology department, said physiologists venture guesses that a man could knock 10 seconds off the world record for the mile.

THE INSTITUTE recently had discovered the drug's fatigue-inhibiting qualities in tests with animals.

Gabriel G. Naehas, head of the institute's respiratory section, agreed with Galambos that "physiologists in the know" believe that within a reasonably short time records will be broken.

"That is certainly probably," said Naehas. "According to all my calculations, it is most probable."

The scientists said the drug should enable horses and other animals to run faster and longer, as well as lend comfort to men in submarines and space ships by raising their tolerance to carbon dioxide.

Dodgers Close Spring Training Against Braves

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (UPI) — Southpaw Juan Pizarro of the Milwaukee Braves and Sandy Koufax of the Los Angeles Dodgers face each other on the mound today in the concluding spring training exhibition game for both clubs.

The Dodgers dropped a 5-4 decision to the Milwaukee squad Tuesday night before a record spring drill crowd of 12,203 fans. It was the largest turnout for a major league exhibition game this spring.

Drysdale, the Dodgers' hope for a 20-win season this year, has been tapped to hurl his team's opening game in Chicago Friday.

Joe Lewis slammed a two-run homer in the first inning and LeRoy Segundo scattered seven hits as Palm Springs Indians defeated their arch rivals, Coachella Valley, at Thermal yesterday to take over the undisputed lead in Riverside County League.

The score was 5 to 3. Lewis' blast came in the top of the first inning after Marty Berk had singled to start the game.

BERK HAS NOW hit safely in three games in the RCL and his average is a high .636.

Coachella evened the count at 2-1 in the bottom of the first. In the third, after Berk had been given a pass to first, and made second on an out, Lennie Ruiz poled a timely single that made it 3-2 for the Tribe.

Coachella again came back to tie it in the fourth.

IN THE SIXTH, Joe Lewis was given a walk, Segundo laid down a neat sacrifice and N. Ruiz slapped out a single that put the Indians ahead 4-3.

They added a safety run in the seventh to make it 5-3.

Segundo gets the win. He allowed seven hits but bared down in the clutch, walked four and fanned six.

Little League Practice Starts Next Saturday

Action starts this Saturday in the 1959 Little League season when first try-outs for the season start at 9 a.m. at the Polo Grounds.

THERE WILL BE try-outs for the next three Saturday mornings for boys who did not play last year. Boys who were with the minor leagues last year must sign up this coming Saturday, it was announced.

This year, for the first time in the six-year history of the Palm Springs Little League, five teams will be in competition.

The Little League and the minor leagues are co-sponsored by the City Recreation Department and the Little League commission.

The Desert Sun is an independent newspaper dedicated to truth, accuracy and impartiality in the news; to the progress of the desert region; to the support of that which it believes to be right and to the defeat of that which it believes to be wrong.

Final Agreement on Paving of Tahquitz Drive Is Welcome News

At the dawn of the New Year of 1959, The DESERT SUN included the paving of Tahquitz Drive across Section 14, from Indian Avenue to Sunrise Way, as one of the most important community projects hopeful of achievement during the year.

Now that agreement and settlement has been arrived at with the last property owner necessary to clear the way for a start on the improvement, completion of that vital and long awaited new avenue during 1959 seems assured.

Although actual paving probably will not be under way until late summer, prospects are that the broad new artery carrying traffic to and from the heart of Palm Springs to the Civic Center and surrounding sections will be ready for use in October.

The formal opening and ribbon-cutting ceremonies should be the occasion of one of the most meaningful and genuinely joyous observances of traffic improvement in Palm Springs in many years.

The great need of at least one major cross-street through the center of Section 14 has been recognized for many years by every resident, businessman and motorist in the City. Funds for this much desired paving project have twice been voted by the populace by almost unanimous consent. Because of the complicated and multitudinous problems involved through the many individual property settlements required, it has not been possible to proceed up to the final agreement just announced.

With the missing link in Tahquitz Drive completed, many thousands of motorists each day will be spared the necessity of driving completely around Section 14 in going to and from the eastern and western parts of the City. Thus a great deal of needless congestion and traffic pressure will be eliminated on both Indian Avenue and Palm Canyon Drive, as well as Tamarisk and Ramon Road.

The City Council, the Tribal Council and all property owners who cooperated are to be thanked for the successful culmination of their combined efforts.

Every resident of the desert, in and out of Palm Springs, eagerly looks forward to the opening of Tahquitz Drive and the benefits it will bring.

Atoms-for-U's

INDIAN POINT, N. Y. — You could be lyrical and call it a story of War and Peace. Or historical, and call it the Past and the Future. Or scientific, and cover the page with hentracks about uranium oxide (UO₂) and thorium oxide (ThO₂) and their electrical output, in this case 168,000 kilowatts.

Or you could be strictly journalistic by quoting the curt comment of Senator Clinton Anderson, Chairman of the Joint Atomic Energy Committee. When Anderson took testimony on this $100 million Consolidated Edison (N. Y.) project which will cost the American taxpayer nothing, he said:

"Bravo!"

THE WAR-PEACE aspect hits you first. There on the foggy Hudson River, some 30 miles north of New York City, rides the ghost fleet of our tied-up merchant marine, left over from World War II. Their hulls are filled with surplus farm products and the like, another hangover from the wastefulness of war. But high up on the rocky cliffs, Con-Ed has gouged into the Palisades with earthmovers and is now raising the steel and concrete rampart of atoms-for-peace, American market.

Yesterday and tomorrow are joined in this electrical generating station which will be another year or so under construction. Part of the generation is "conventional," with oil being used as a fuel. The other part is nuclear and carries the known risks of lethal radiation, with some unknown risks, perhaps.

THE PRESSURIZED water reactor is buried deep under a huge headstone of re-enforced concrete, and the mausoleum is sealed tight. It will remain so until the nuclear fuel becomes exhausted. At this time the Atomic Energy Commission will have the task of removing the burning elements and disposing of them.

The theme of danger inevitably runs through the atomic process. The peril has been purposely exaggerated by numerous groups, not all of them quite loyal or quite sane, with the intent of spoiling the American atomic effort, both military and civilian.

BUT PIONEERING was never the safest and softest life. If we no longer have a continental frontier (unless it's the State of Alaska), there's no doubt about the new areas of science which are now at once beckoning and threatening. As this country pushes into the future, the exhilarating presence of challenge and peril lie all about, and there's no denying that this is so.

Neighbor to the Indian Point atomic power plant is the village of Buchanan, Westchester County, New York. Mayor Bill Burke won a big victory at the polls by welcoming the new industry with its attendant risks.

RE SAYS THAT his constituents are around 20 to 1 in favor of the new plant and the tax benefits it will bring. Panic rumors have been floated by the usual elements, not excluding some enterprising realtors in rival towns at a "safe" distance. But there is no sign of a stampede to flee from the future.

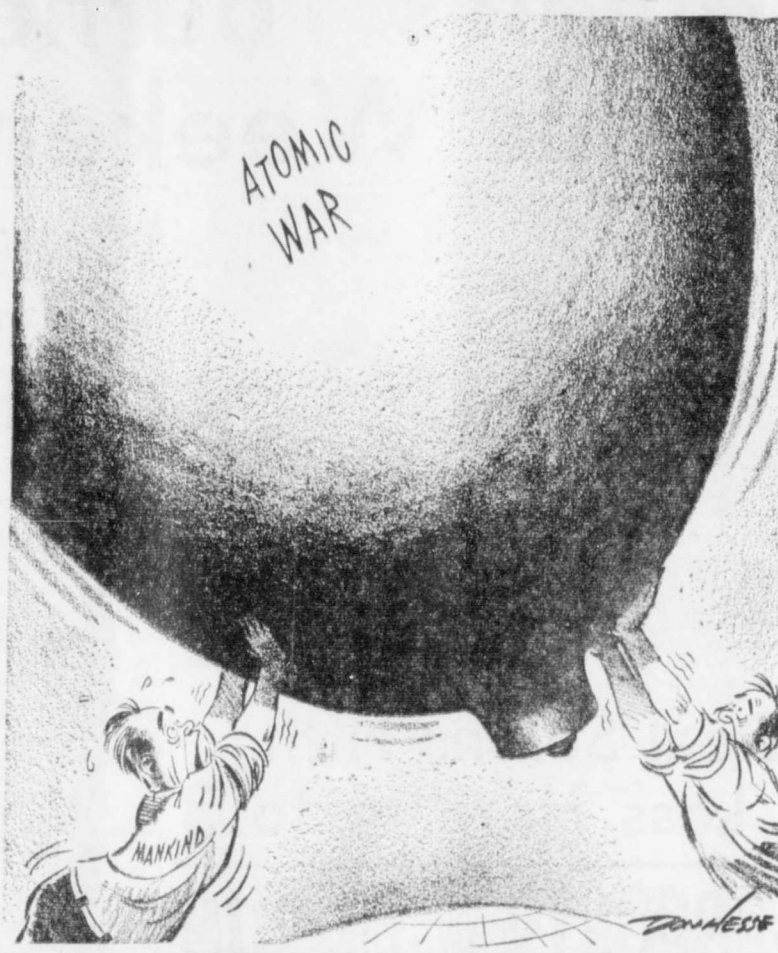

The Con-Ed company is spending its own stockholders' funds, as are some other power companies, because it is the best way of finding out the practical uses of atomic energy. The Eisenhower Administration, greatly to its credit, launched the plan in 1954 of bringing free enterprise into the atomic energy field which was then totally nationalized.

SINCE THE President lost his Republican majorities in Congress better than four years ago, his atomic programs under Lewis Strauss and now under John McCone, as AEC chairman, have been continuously attacked by the Democrats, especially those Senators from public power States in the Tennessee Valley and the Pacific Northwest.

Virtually every move of the 131 private utility companies with their total of 28 nuclear projects, many Federally aided, have been subject to carping criticism and suspicious surveillance. But all the explorers, beginning in this hemisphere with Columbus himself, had to fight the past when reaching for the future. Our atomic pioneers are living the same story.

Another long-talked plan At least is bearing fruit
*(At last is working out)
To reach the city hall
We'll go a shorter route.

*Alternative line in case you prefer the second choice pronunciation given the word by "route" by Messrs. Funk and Wagnalls, Webster, et al.

They put "root" first and then "rowt."

ANYWAY, from the time the city hall moved from the 300 block on North Palm Canyon to an abandoned ATC building at the airport there was complaint about the round-about way to get there, either up to Tamarisk or down Ramon and then Sunrise to McCallum.

"Should be a short cut across the Reservation," people grumbled.

POLICE CARS went out Amado and then off across country angling over the desert to McCallum Way. But that was a bit rough for the casual motorist.

So it was extra good news that the last obstacle to hooking up Tahquitz Drive and McCallum Way, to practically move the city hall a mile closer to the center of town, has been removed.

J. M. MCLELLAND of Desert Braemar, Inc., writes in to blast the inaction on the improvement of Highway 111.

"As far as this section of Highway 111 (in the Braemar area and through the booming country club district) is concerned, it is an orphan."

"The state highway commission has washed its hands of any responsibility, county supervisors have made only some token improvements and the business community of Palm Springs is doing little to encourage traffic into the Village."

"OUT HERE the word is 'we hope those new stores keep coming on so that we won't have to risk being wrecked on our way into or out of Palm Springs.'"

McClelland has an article in the April issue of "Mockingbird," the monthly publication of Braemar, Inc., in which he calls attention to the dangerous situation on Highway 111 and the recurring headlines in The Sun of tragedies there.

HE WRITES: "This whole area from the Palm Springs city limits to Indian Wells is fairly exploding population-wise. Hundreds of new homes are being built, hotels and apartments, golf courses, new stores and shopping centers, all adding to the traffic on the over-burdened highway until it is no longer capable of accommodating the demands made on it."

"But what's being done? So far, nothing."

HE CALLS attention to another serious situation on the Highway. That is in the communities of Cathedral City, Rancho Mirage and Palm Desert where business people and institutions are across the street from the residential portions.

McClelland says that lack of control of the heavy, speeding traffic makes it almost impossible for pedestrians to reach the stores.

STAN DELAPLAINE'S Postcard

The world's first and only incorporated dog arrived at our house yesterday afternoon. He is 2 months old, black-and-white and described vaguely as:

"He is Australian shepherd. Only partly he is something else."

I am advised by my 15-year-old hearse to love and cherish this dog.

TO FORGET that one side of his family may not have registered in the Social Register.

To love him for himself alone. "And be sure to keep water in his dish."

With this parting advice, she took off for school. The pup lay down and began to chew the telephone cord in two.

FOR QUITE awhile now, we have discussed a dog for our 3-year-old boy. Like all household projects, it caused more clucking than a hen house at egg-laying time.

Nobody could agree on what KIND of dog.

We had advocates of toy poodles that matched the car upholstery. We had the Great Dane set. Neighbors got in the act and offered airdales, Chihuahuas and English bulldogs.

I tell you everybody was on edge. Ready to SCREAM if you mentioned dog again.

WELL, THIS was all solved by the Miss Flirt of the scatter. She simply came in from the country the other day carrying this "Australian shepherd only partly something else."

There were some halfhearted tries to return the dog — the came from a ranch down the Carmel valley. But the female child burst into tears. The small boy, seeing this, roared off into sobbing himself.

And before you could gather your wits, the pup was drinking milk, had a seat by the fire and was giving a fair imitation of an orphan out of the storm.

THERE was also some talk about who would pay the board-and-room on a dog. A dog can cut a chunk out of a household budget that can hardly hook up the back again.

"Daddy will pay for it out of the corporation," said my daughter.

The corporation is an elastic catch-all. We couldn't get along without it.

At some grandiose moment, I got a corporation. It has never made a dime. But, like a dog, it is a handy thing to have around the house.

FOR SOME reason, there is an unshakable opinion around here that a corporation is like an unlimited bank account.

"The corporation only has $10 in the whole bank account!" I cried.

Well, that is silly. EVERYBODY knows a corporation is a rich old thing. Owned by rich people. And papers are always writing, "Corporate Earnings Reach All-Time High."

I am suspected of holding out vast riches in this incorporated mystery.

THE DOG has been named Inc., a likely monicker for an incorporated dog.

He does not match the seat covers. He could not get into the American Kennel Club even if a member vouched for him and oiled to sign for the lunch.

Being a pup, you cannot tell yet how big he will grow or what shape he will come out. But—

"WE GOT HIM for free! And the corporation can pay for his food."

I think I will turn over the corporation secretly to Inc. He can be president. He can be chairman of the board.

At present he does not wish to be either. He wishes to chew telephone cords. Likely that dog has a piece of A.T.&T.

EARL WILSON:

Was Liz Taylor Too Bold?

LAS VEGAS — How do you feel about Liz Taylor's contention that public opinion isn't the most important thing when you're in love? Liz was squeezing Eddie Fisher's hand and kissing him and rubbing the back of his neck when I asked her about it. Her answer, as she tossed her head and her diamonds, in perhaps a new and somewhat defiant declaration of independence for glamor girls-in-love.

"We respect public opinion, but you can't live by it," were her precise words here at the Tropicana where she and Eddie had proclaimed their hopes for immediate wedlock.

"If we lived by it, Eddie and I would have been terribly unhappy during all this turmoil, but I can shamelessly say that we have been terribly happy."

"I am rising above it," she added with a smile of serenity. "Eddie and I are very proud of our feelings for each other, but we have never tried to hide them. We have been accused of being indiscreet, and rightly so—but we haven't tried to hide anything."

That's what the beautiful young woman said—strong words too. They might scare some people.

Yet, before denouncing Liz, one should think of Ingrid Bergman. She followed her conscience in an equally headstrong way a few years ago and now seems to have recaptured much of the public esteem that she had lost. She may be even more popular today than before. In the immortal words of somebody, the public has a quick forgettery.

Even if you're rich, lady, you gotta know how to cook.

Because with the tax bite getting rougher, you'll have fewer servants, and some day when the cook's sick and company drops in, you'll want to know how to get some ice cubes out of the fridge without breaking your nails.

Having long worried about this, Mme. Louis Vaudable, wife of the owner of famous Maxim's in Paris, is launching "Maxim's Academy" to teach American women and girls "the art of dining — including cooking," "the art of entertaining," and "art appreciation."

She's got a five-week course in Paris for $300, or three weeks for $600, and for $45 a week more you can live with a French family and learn "the art of appreciating French families." Comtesse De Toulouse-Lautrec, whose husband is grand nephew of the great painter, is on the faculty. Mme. Vaudable, who was recently in N.Y., choosing 1,500 select American women and girls to invite, told me sadly that men can't enroll. (Just when I was about to.) "The Art of Entertaining—for Men? Oh no, we would have to teach them other courses," she said. Anyway, you too, can be Elsa Maxwell.

President Eisenhower's great friend and speech-writer, Kevin McCann, president of Defiance, O., College, is in N.Y., wearing the beginning of a beard.

"It's because he's performing in a play, 'The Suspected Truth,' being given by students and faculty members at Defiance College April 15-19. He plays a grizzled Spaniard. The play's being presented as part of the American observance."

One strange thing happened since I got the beard, President McCann admitted. "I walked over to the Plaza Hotel and a man came up and said, 'Hello, Mr. Hemingway! I'm Joe from Sheppard's Bar in Cairo.'"

Eddie Jackson made a good album of old time songs in N.Y. for Audio-Fidelity but he's very sad about his splitup with Jimmy Durante. Returning to L.A., he said, "I can't get work here or there either, because everybody thinks I've been rappin' Jimmy. I never knocked him; I'll die lovin' the guy. When we split up, my heart was broken and I had a good cry."

JUST FOR THE RECORD:

Delbert Mann, director of the "Middle of the Night" movie, picked Kim Novak over such candidates as Debbie Reynolds, Jean Simmons, Hope Lange and Eva Marie Saint—and is sorry. "She's warm, friendly and thoroughly nice and needs to be given a chance."

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Taffy Tuff discussed a B-movie-bound show. "I've heard it's not as bad as I've heard it is."

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Another Blockbuster

HOLLYWOOD — "Compulsion" is Chicago's this-week contribution to Hollywood's boxoffice blockbusters (last week's was "Al Capone") — a tight, taut, terrifying takeout on the Wintry City's Leopold and Loeb murder case of the Twenties, the angriest, most hard-focussed film since "A Medal for Benny!"

Orson Welles, in a no-holds-barred portrayal of defense attorney Clarence Darrow, takes you into the hearts of the young murderer (Dean Stockwell plays Leopold, Brad Dillman plays Loeb) like a doctor ripping a bandage from an open wound. It's a brilliant first production credit for young Richard Zanuck but the Meyer Levin yarn leaves no doubt in anybody's mind that the two boys were sexual deviates and makes you wonder where the movies go from here.

Ally Khan went to a fancy Beverly Hills tailor before he breezed back to his French Riviera playground and got fitted out for $500 worth of cowboy togs — and THAT'll be a change from those bikinis!

Zsa Zsa Gabor's definition of a square: a first-time Paris visitor who buys tickets to the Folies Bergere for himself — and an interpreter.

CHANEL CHATTER—Esther Williams agreed to do a guesting on What Are the Odds? on one condition: no swimming. Esther still has her sights set on a straight acting career.

Young Carolyn Kearney is the only actress in history who ever got paid by Playhouse 90 for doing nothing. She was signed to star as the teenage young mother in a 90 segment, "In Lonely Expectations." Then the 90 nabobs learned that Diane Baker (of "The Diary of Anne Frank") would be available for the role. They signed Diane. Then they asked Carolyn if she would play a supporting role in the same seg. Carolyn said, "No soap — starting role or nothing!" So it's nothing — but Carolyn is getting paid her straight three-week (including rehearsals) starring salary for sitting around twiddling her thumbs.

CHIEF MILANTS' recipe for reaching your 67th milestone (he just reached his): "I hit the sack every night remembering the people who did me right and forgetting those who did me wrong!"

Mae West and Bob Hope signed to guest on Dean Martin's May 3 spec for Times. So I guess they'll be rhyming Timex with Sex.

Remember all the hullabaloo about Leona (Mrs. Universal) Gage, who lost her crown when they discovered she was married? She just signed up for a bit role in a segment of the new Underworld series — as a gangster's moll.

Proving that television isn't Hollywood's ONLY competition, the population of Southern California has increased 13 per cent since 1950.

Letters to the Editor

Editor,
Desert Sun

In my business one contacts many strangers as well as local people. Among these contacts, from time to time, we meet representatives of wealthy investment companies, and millionaires — people who pretty well know what they are doing and what it is all about.

I have seen the representatives of these investment companies invest hundreds of thousands of dollars in Rancho Mirage, Palm Desert, and other nearby resorts, but why haven't any of them been talked into investing in Cathedral City? (Don't think we haven't tried!)

One of the principal reasons given to me is our present name. It is a "non-name" town. It doesn't stand for anything related to us. We have no Cathedral, and the so-called Cathedral Canyon back of town resembles a big crack in the earth's surface but does not resemble a Cathedral. Having seen hundreds of cathedrals in Mexico, Central America, and Europe, I can see no true resemblance, and I have as vivid an imagination I think as any one.

What then would be an appropriate name for our fine town? What natural phenomena exist here that we could be named for? Is not the following the true answer? Back of the cove this town is, so far built on are four clumps of fine big native Palm trees, fed by four springs. Three of these palm clumps are well up in the big canyon to the right of Cathedral Canyon, which said canyon ends in our cove, and the other one is above the top, of the head of Cathedral Canyon, and looking off to the southwest.

Here we have native palms and springs that feed them, up on the heights. No truer or more appropriate name could we choose than this beautiful "PALM SPRINGS HEIGHTS," and one that is truly a desert resort name.

If you love this town and its best future, and you approve of this name will you please drop a card to Sam Arner, P. O. Box 976, Cathedral City, Calif., and let me have your name, and if you are a property owner, a short time visitor, or a steady visitor.

To those who do not know of these beautiful palm trees and springs on the heights back of town I am willing to lend a group to them if they wish or show pictures of the same. Having spent 20 years running over the mountains around us I am pretty well acquainted with them. Let's have a name that fits us, a true name, a true desert resort name. I would also be glad to hear from people in our sister resort towns what they think of this name, so as to sample unbiased public opinion, especially from their leaders.

I will make these reports known to the public, and to our civic organizations as soon as received. If the town votes to incorporate as some wish it to, it might as well have a name that won't be changed later, as sentiment will eventually give place to vision.

SAM ARNER

Mobile Homes

Trailer Notes

By AL NEHL

Chester Armstrong, Oregon's superintendent of state parks, reports that in 1958 over 10 million people visited the 190 parks owned and operated by the Oregon State Highway Department. Seventy-two of these parks permit trailers and many furnish electricity, running water and sewer hook ups.

Warner S. Moon, director of the Cathedral City Public Library, reports that in the last ten years, only two of the thousands of books loaned to trailer residents have not been returned.

To steer a trailer when backing up, just grasp the steering wheel at the bottom and push or pull it in the direction you want the back end of the trailer to go.

Ruth Kaseman, editor and publisher of the Arizona Mobile Citizen, was remembered on her recent birthday with the gift of a new deluxe 16 foot vacation trailer. It was "in recognition of your years of hard work on behalf of the trailer industry," Mrs. Kaseman plans to join the Mobile Home News caravan to Portland for the Centennial celebration and take in the Palm Springs Trailer Rally on her return trip.

The Trailer Squares, a travel trailer club whose hobby is square dancing, are studying plans to attend the National Square Dance Convention at Denver, Colo., in May.

A new book that features articles on general mobile living as well as information on travel trailer clubs, caravans and vacation trips is now on sale at the larger news stands. The name is "Mobile Homes and Travel Trailers," and the publishers are Fawcett Publications.

Trailer construction in the United States has now reached the point where one trailer is being built for every seven residential dwellings completed.

The Long Beach Trailer Club is arranging an inter-club meeting on April 14 in the Recreation Community Club House in Long Beach. An interesting panel discussion is being arranged by George McPheters, founder and president of the club, which will feature such VIPs in the trailer world as Jack Kneass, editor of the Trail-R-News Magazine; Jerry Weiss, vice president of the Kensill Mfg. Co.; Norm Phillips, noted trailer writer; and Bill James, editor of the Western Mobile Home News.

Rex Thompson's hilarious new book, "Characters on Wheels" just published by Crowell of New York, will be launched in Beverly Hills at the first autograph party ever held in a trailer. Many celebrities, book editors, trailer trade editors, writers and Hollywood friends of the Thompsons are expected to attend.

The Eighth annual Camera Days has scheduled two extra dates and locations in Los Angeles this year which were not previously included. Sept. 13 at Shatto Playgrounds, 4191 West Fourth Street, and Oct. 12, the wind-up day at Griffith Park Zoo.

The Western Council of Trailer Clubs is working for an increase of speed limits for trailers to 50 miles per hour. The present 45 mile limit, which is being rigidly enforced now, is unrealistic, they say.

Rancho Trailer Park
Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Hann of Rancho Trailer Park have just returned from a six weeks voyage. They attended the Mardi Gras in New Orleans for one week, then embarked on the Swedish ship, Stella Polares, making this their hotel for the entire trip.

This cruise took them through the West Indies, making their first stop at Havana, Cuba, then on to Cap Haitien in Haiti, St. Thomas in Virgin Islands, St. Kitts, Martinique, and the very interesting "Spice Island," Grenada, where the air was pungent with the odors of the various spices. Curacao was the last stop in the West Indies.

THE HIGHLIGHT of the trip was the visit to San Blas Island—this ship being the only one to make this stop and only once a year. The natives swarmed around the ship in their dug-outs, a very colorful pageant of welcome.

The day spent with this "primitive Indian Tribe" proved most interesting. Next stop was Cristobal and then Panama City for two days before going on to Montego Bay in Jamaica. The last stop before returning to New Orleans was Georgetown in Grand Cayman, British West Indies.

ABOUT FORTY-FIVE of the Rancho ladies enjoyed the luncheon and card party given by the Palm Springs Women's Club at the Thunderbird Country Club. Mrs. Ewart, Mrs. Class, Mrs. Lane and Mrs. Koester each won prizes. The last luncheon for the season given by the Palm Springs Women's Club will be held at the Racquet Club, Monday, April 13.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hines from Plymouth, Mich., were guests of her sister, Mrs. George Simmons last week.

Tramview

One of the most popular evenings spent in Tramview this season has been the Sunday Community Sing, featuring many guest speakers and soloists from the desert area.

Katy Steever has been the leader, assisted by Emma Shumaker, Elmer Morrow, Stanley Gregory and Roy West. Ernie Higgs has served as accompanist for all sings. As he and his wife, Bessie, are leaving for their Canadian home, the last sing was held Sunday.

The group enjoying this activity held its annual potluck dinner last week, and presented a variety show for the entire park. Katy Steever wrote and produced the show, with Bob Dodds as master of ceremonies.

THE MEN AND WOMEN each took the other's parts, with the cast acting in pantomime. Taking part were Edith and Bill Barrows, Ruby and Jake Arnold, Arline and Bill Head, Sue and "Doc" Thornton, Glenn Steever, Leland Van Slyke, Ernie Higgs, Elmer Morrow was prop manager.

A free will offering was taken for the Crippled Children. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kirkpatrick from SunTown entertained last Sunday evening with their unique arrangement of bells. Emma Shumaker and Katy Steever sang "Beneath the Cross of Jesus."

Marine 'Hams' Thanked for Aid In Rescue Try

TWENTYNINE PALMS—Three U. S. Marine Corp "ham" radio operators yesterday were recipients of "well-done" acknowledgments from the U. S. Coast Guard and from a Mexican government station at San Felipe for their aid in an ill-fated sea rescue operation that cost the life of a college professor and his son.

The three Marines—Staff Sergeants Arthur B. Septon, Jr., Bernard Rosenberg and Robert D. Richardson—found the only station able to minor the San Felipe station. They took turns over a 16-hour span in relaying the San Felipe messages to San Diego and the San Pedro Coast Guard installations.

The storm, in the Gulf of California, claimed the lives of Los Angeles City College professor John Calvin Taylor, 42, and his son, John Calvin Taylor, Jr., 15.

The Marines monitored the broadcasts and coordinated air-sea units in their quest for three missing fishing boats in the gulf. Two of the vessels returned to shore after a baffling storm. The bodies of the two victims were later found by a Mexican craft plying the gulf.

Nevada's population in 1970 is expected to be 67 per cent greater than it was in 1955. Arizona is expected to grow by 66 per cent during the same period, California by 54 per cent and Florida 33 per cent.

Mounted Police Meet Tonight

Members of the Palm Springs Mounted Police planning to attend the group's trip to Las Vegas are urged to attend the regular monthly meeting of the organization at 8 p.m. tonight, in Los Compadres Clubhouse.

Secretary Clare Ballagh advised members to bring a $10 deposit to the meeting.

Firm Policy

Accidents Drop in March

Following a firm policy in the issuance of traffic citations during the month of March, Chief of Police August G. Kettmann reported this week that Palm Springs showed a 33.43 per cent decrease in traffic accidents.

The police chief reported that the axiom that accidents decrease when citations increase indicates that Palm Springs is not an exception to the rule.

"While we dislike and are reluctant to become 'citation happy,' in view of the injuries and accidents prevented and the deterring effect of firm but polite policy of law enforcement, it is our plan to continue on a reasonable level, even through seasonal activities will be diminishing," said Kettmann.

During the month of March, manual control was exercised in the business district on weekends—which was also intended to quiet Easter visiting teenagers, about whom the department had fewer complaints.

Students Visit Ann Fitzgerald

PALM DESERT—Miss Jean Williams and Miss Vicki Carma, both students at Pasadena City College, were guests this past week of Miss William's paternal aunt, Miss Ann Fitzgerald, who is publicist for the La Quinta Desert Club.

Wrong Address

NORFOLK V.A. (UPD)—Builder David L. Levine constructed three new homes only to discover his carpenters had mistakenly erected them on property owned by the city of Norfolk.

The City Council came to Levine's rescue, however, by selling him the property on which he had built. It was almost identical to the lots he had purchased for the homes, but two blocks away.

refreshingly different

The good taste of beer, the very character of beer, depends largely upon the excellence of the water used in its brewing. Much of light Olympia Beer's fame stems from its unusual brewing water. Flowing cool and clear from deep artesian wells, this extraordinary water brings out the most delicate flavors and aromas of select hops and grains. Rarely, in all the world, has water been discovered that is naturally perfect for brewing just as it flows from the earth. Olympia has such a water. That is why Olympia always tastes the same—yet refreshingly different!

NEW QUARTERS FOR one of the area's fastest-growing investment firms are now occupied by Fleetwood Investment Corporation, at 102 North Palm Canyon Drive. In only a year, Fleetwood has grown from a simple beginning as franchise holder for a Los Angeles firm to a completely local-owned, independent operation. The firm now offers—in addition to its well-known 10 percent investment program—land promotion, development building and lending programs, according to Fleetwood President James A. Crowe. Crowe, formerly a prominent real estate broker, is aided by Eve S. Russell, managing director, and a group of highly-trained specialists in the field. Included are R. W. (Bob) Davis and Clarence Brechlin, who head the concern's insurance division. Dear Abby...

...By Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: I have a friend who never loses when he gambles. He says he's got a system and I believe it. He will play Black Jack, shoot craps and tell me in advance that he will win $500 and quit, and sure enough, that is what happens. I have watched him and cannot figure it out. Could he have a "system" or how can this be explained?

BYSTANDER
DEAR BYSTANDER: Anyone who has a "system" that NEVER fails in a game of "chance" must be getting a little co-operation. He knows something about the cards (or dice) he is handling that you don't know.

DEAR ABBY: I am 17 and a Junior in High School. I am 5 ft. 2, weigh 110 and measure 35-24-35. I have blonde hair and wear glasses. I am a better than average student and take part in many school activities. I don't dress or act loud and have plenty of nice clothes. People say I have a nice personality. Everyone comes to me for advice about mother trouble and boyfriends and girlfriends. You're probably wondering what my problem is. Well, I don't have a boyfriend. Nobody ever asks me for a date. What can I do, Abby?

LONESOME
DEAR LONESOME: You are doing everything possible to make yourself date bait. The problem is "the boys." They are afraid to get "involved" by asking for a date. (Expense, no car, etc.) When boys realize that there are dozens of girls (nice ones) who'd love to spend a quiet evening at home (hers) just talking and listening to records, they'll wake up and get off the dime.

DEAR ABBY: We have been having a big discussion about something very serious and would like your opinion. What is the difference between SEX and LOVE?

THE INQUIRERS
DEAR INQUIRERS: In a nutshell: SEX is satisfaction with just anybody while LOVE can find fulfillment with only "the" person.

DEAR ABBY: I am very much interested in a man who is stationed at the Navy Base where I work. He takes me out and says he respects me and enjoys my company. He asked me what I would say if somebody proposed to me. Was he kidding, I wonder? I could really love this man.

JUANITA
DEAR JUANITA: Tell him he can only find out what you'd say after you hear the proposal.

DEAR ABBY: My father thinks he knows everything just because he went to Stanford. He says all States require a blood test before marriage. I say there are states which do not and they are Nevada, Washington and Minnesota. Am I right?

BROWN EYES
Cars hold market value better than most durable goods. A two year old car has 60 per cent of its original price.

DEAR BROWN EYES: Your father is all wrong and you are half right. Add Maryland, South Carolina and Washington, D. C. Do your parents trust you? Get ABBY's booklet, "What Every Teenager Should Know." Send 25 cents and a large stamped, self-addressed envelope to ABBY in care of this newspaper.

CONFIDENTIAL TO MARRIED LIFE: He may be heir-minded

...but is he heir-conditioned?

"How can I get him to notice me?" Get ABBY's booklet, "What Every Teenager Wants to Know." Send 25 cents and a large, self-addressed stamped envelope to ABBY, in care of this newspaper.

Organizing Exemplar Chapter

Members of Sigma Gamma Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi were hostesses Wednesday evening at the lovely home of Frances Pruitt on South Calle Marcus at a meeting held to form an Exemplar chapter of the sorority in Palm Springs. As the guests arrived, they were treated to an organ concert by the hostess.

Amelia Irvine, president of Sigma Gamma and chairman of the event, announced plans to formulate an Exemplar chapter if enough members are interested. Those who have completed four years in a Ritual of Jewels chapter and are members in good standing are eligible to join. The new chapter hopes to hold its candlelight ceremony on Exemplar Day, May 15.

After the meeting, refreshments of cake and coffee were served by the hostess while the guests enjoyed a showing of color television.

Among the guests were Amelia Irvine, Marge Hayes, Bernie Bortoff, Dorothy Read and Marjorie Griffith.

Those who have indicated they desire to affiliate with the new Exemplar chapter are Frances Pruitt, Marge Thatcher, Dorothy Beardsall, Dorothy Read, Marge Hayes, Bernie Bortoff, Marjorie Griffith, Ileen Burkholder, Marilyn Mason, Dorothy Sorenson and Byrna Johnson.

Any Exemplars or members-at-large who are eligible and wish to join the chapter are requested to contact either Amelia Irvine at FA 8-2939 or Bernie Bortoff at FA 5-6236.

ISLAND PRINTS like this one, plus island style resort wear, and exotic luau garb will be modeled Friday at a style show luncheon at the Ranch Club, with fashions from the Waltha Clarke Hawaiian shops. The style show will be a prelude to the Club's annual luau which will be held April 17. (Desert Sun Photo)

Fashion Show Luncheon on Friday Will Be Hawaiian

Waltha's fashion show at the Ranch Club luncheon on Friday, will be especially interesting in view of Hawaii's recent statehood. Waltha has always shown, and will again, his basic items such as muumus, sarongs and tea timers, but this time he will stress the garments made by the modern manufacturers in Hawaii, if not ahead of the mainland designers. These will include silk harem cocktail dresses in exotic colors, the brand new Zabuton group, patterned after the Japanese Zabuton Toyo designs. He will show dresses, swimwear, muumus and loungers, with bathing suits picking up one of the colors of the Zabuton jacket.

Also modeled will be the new Arnel fabric group including Camisa shirts, capris and Jamaica shorts.

The Jack Ehrlichs, formerly of San Francisco who are now permanent residents of Palm Springs at 1041 Twin Palms Drive, will have as their dinner guests at the Racquet Club this evening, Mr. and Mrs. Mac Manus and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Lustine of Washington, D. C. who are vacationing at Howard Manor.

One of his best series will be the new Springtime series. Springtime is the name of the new lightly flowered print, in loungers, jackets and sun dresses.

Waltha will also show matching hats with his entire collection. Also featured will be garments to be worn at the Ranch Club Luau on Friday, April 17.

The Hal White quartet featuring Clessa Williams will furnish a background of Hawaiian and popular music.

Round-the-World Tour

Japan Proves Very Interesting Country

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The following is the twelfth of a series by Harold N. Beck, Village resident who formerly owned the Ocean-side daily paper and now owns the Azusa weekly publication, detailing his impressions of an around-the-world tour.)

By HAROLD N. BECK

TOKYO, Japan — "So sorry, no cherry blossoms, so sorry."

Such was the comment of our very polite guide as he explained to us the beauty and wonders of Japan.

What an interesting country is Japan. Cherry and other trees are everywhere, which must be amazingly beautiful when in bloom.

The cities of Japan are not particularly interesting, as they are very much like American cities, but the gardens—and there are gardens everywhere—are beautifully landscaped with arched bridges, stone lanterns, foliage and streams. You feel that you are in a dreamland as you visit them.

WE VISITED five of Japan's six largest cities, and scouted the colorful back country during our six days in the interesting country.

We watched Japanese toiling industriously in the fields, saw them worshipping devoutly in their Buddhist temples and Shinto shrines, enjoyed photographing young mothers with dark-eyed babies tucked closely to their backs, relished their unusual foods in quaint Japanese settings, and mingled with milling thousands who jammed the busy streets.

Japan is such a crowded country, 92 million people packing a country no larger than the state of California. It is no wonder the people have to be enterprising enough to use every inch of tillable land. Arable land is only equivalent to a space one half the size of the state of Ohio.

It is an industrial country. It manufactures practically every item you can imagine, and does it so cheaply, that it constitutes a threat to America's economy.

At Sunair Terrace for a week were Mr. and Mrs. Ray M. Wolven of Santa Ana, who were joined for the weekend by their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ray E. Wolven and their son, Ray, of Orange. Mrs. May F. Barr and friend Mrs. Jennie Provo returned to their homes in Portland, Ore., after a week of desert relaxation.

Among the weekend guests at Sunair Terrace were Mr. and Mrs. K. R. Gordon, frequent guests from Edwards Air Force Base, and Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Green of Woodland Hills. Also here for a week were Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Curtis from Chico, and Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Cochems of Glendale.

BECAUSE THE people are pitifully poor and there is much unemployment, Communism is gaining momentum. Young people, particularly, have nationalistic tendencies. Communists, however, have only one seat in the government, which is encouraging.

We passed the imperial palace and gazed into the attractively landscaped grounds, but were not allowed to enter. The public is forbidden to enter the palace grounds now because elaborate preparations are being made for the marriage next month of the crown prince. Japanese are proud their prince is marrying a commoner, the first time such a thing has happened in 2,600 years.

JAPANESE are very religious. They throw in prayer their temples to pay homage to giant statues of Buddha. They crowd the Shinto shrines to worship their ancestors. At the shrines the Japanese clap their hands twice and then bow solemnly while at the temples they merely join their hands together and bow.

Two repulsive carved giants stand on the right and left of the main gateway to most temples. The giants are supposed to keep evil spirits away. A pair of dog-like stone images stand at the entrance to most Japanese shrines. The pair is supposed to guard the shrine. In Kyoto alone, there are 1,598 Buddhist temples and 229 Shinto shrines.

Japanese can be both Buddhists and Shintoists, most of them having both altars in their homes. The most impressive statue of Buddha we saw was at Kamakura where stands bronze Daibutsu 42 feet high and weighing 92 tons.

WE FAILED to see impressive Mt. Fuji because of low hanging clouds, but did have a delightful trip into the mountains to azure-blue Lake Hakone in which we were supposed to see Fuji's reflection.

We visited many hotels for meals and tea, the most impressive being the luxurious Fujita Hotel high in the mountains, and the very modern Imperial in Tokyo. Hotels are both western and Japanese styles in the Japanese-style hotels you must take off your shoes at the entrance.

In your assigned room, either a "yukata" or a "tanzen"—both forms of the Japanese kimono—is given to you which you may change to wear for comfort.

In the bathroom you must use your soap not in the bathtub but on the floor outside. After washing yourself, you get into the tub and soak in the very hot water. As the hot water in the tub is to be used by many people in turn, you must never pull out the plug at the bottom.

JAPANESE HOMES appear drab, as they are unpainted. There are many windows built wide to combat the dampness and sultriness of the Japanese summer. Most of the windows are guarded by wooden sliding doors at night. The rooms are partitioned by "karakami," thick sliding paper doors, which can be removed, making adjoining rooms into larger ones whenever necessary. There is very little furniture.

Meals are taken sitting on the floor and shoes are removed before entering the house. Very few of the homes have bedrooms. The same room is used as a living-room and bedroom. At night the bedding is taken out of a cupboard and spread in the matted room for a bed.

MOST JAPANESE dress western style, but you always see a few women on the street dressed in the colorful kimono, with its wide obi (sash), and geta, a sort of clog, with cleats, on the feet. All Japanese are exceedingly polite. They are a proud race and humble themselves to no one but are

'FLYING GREAT-GRANDMA' Zaddie Bunker completed her physiological training at George Air Force Base near Victorville this week and Major Robinson Risher, the jet pilot who'll carry her faster than the speed of sound, was on hand to congratulate her. The Palm Springs woman, who won her pilot's license six years ago at age 63, will fly with the major in a North American F-100F "Super Sabre." Zaddie had to undergo rigid physical exams by Air Force medics before they would clear her for her precedent-shattering flight on May 16. The event will be held as a feature of Armed Forces Days on that date. (Official USAF Photo)

ONE OF PALM SPRINGS big businesses, the Desert Hand Laundry now employs more than 70 persons — washers, pressers, sorters, drivers and the like—in its new building on East Ramon Road.

Desert Hand Laundry Is Featured by Trade Journal

The new Desert Hand Laundry has been featured in a five-page feature in the March issue of the Pacific Laundry and Cleaning Journal, a trade publication, and outlines how the building was constructed and the equipment in it.

Started in 1949 by George Ripley, the business has grown from a small plant on North Indian Avenue to the new plant and business offices at 4775 East Ramon Road, with a drive-in service store at Alejo and Indian.

DESERT HAND LAUNDRY boasts of three customers who are on the list of the 10 best dressed persons in the world.

Ripley reports in the article that he has customers "who mail in items to them to have them cleaned" and in one case a man sends his chauffeur all the way to Palm Springs from Long Beach to deliver and pick up cleaning.

IT WAS ALSO reported that other regular customers do business with him from Virginia Beach, Va., Yakima, Wash., and Mt. Carmel, Ill.

The article tells of how Ripley first had an exact scale model of his new business constructed — with every piece of machinery shown to scale in the miniature. When it came time to build the new addition to the building, the machinery was moved in exactly where it was supposed to stand.

THE NEW LAUNDRY plant in Palm Springs is really two plants in one—one for the handling of family work and one for commercial work received from hotels, clubs, a military base and the like.

During the winter season, when the desert area is at its peak population, the commercial laundry division operates on a two-shift basis—from 7 a. m. to 3:30 p. m. and from 3:30 p. m. to midnight.

Sun Town Deluxe

The Sun Town Gallery held a showing of paintings, sculptures, enamels, mobiles, ceramics and mosaics, under the direction of Gaylord Richmond. In addition to the paintings by Richmond, there were works by John Hilton, Wilton McCoy, Stanley Parkhouse, deceased, William Krehm, Lawrence Hinkley, Rhoda Light, Fred Penny and Vardon Goin.

Among the arts and crafts display were works by Margaret Loring, Barney Reid, Martha Longnecker, Margaret Price, Alice Powell, Edith Patton, Lute Neve, Curtis Miller and Virginia Young.

TEA WAS SERVED to an appreciative group in the outdoor gallery. Pouring were Mrs. Lincoln W. Cronwell and Mrs. Helen Humble of La Jolla and Sun Town, Mrs. Emma Jackson of Astoria, Ore., and Mrs. Etti Melius and Mrs. Paul Siman of Sun Town.

The Palm Springs Duplicate Bridge Club, which at present is composed mostly of Sun Town players, hosted a team of eight players from Rancho Traylor Park at a Bridge Luncheon on Friday afternoon. The Rancho team won the tournament, making 761 points against 695 for Sun Town, Rancho taking first, third and fourth places.

TOP SCORE was made by the Rancho team of Ruth Parker and Verna Whiteside with a score of 109½ points. Lyda and Lee Stettler of Sun Town were second with 106½ points. Third place was taken by Rancho's Pauline Bean and Pearl Rogers with 104½ points and fourth place was won by Marge Lutz and Addie Holbrook, also of Rancho.

Next year it is planned to expand this club to other parks in the area and hold a series of progressive tournaments.

Admiral Henry Pitts, (Ret.) made an interesting comparison of U.S. naval strength with that of Russia at the Men's Club Luncheon, but pointed out that while "we were in no grave danger from their military strength, other factors than military weakness could relegate us to a second class nation."

The Sun Town Men's Club staged another big pancake breakfast for the people in the park Sunday. All the food was furnished by the Food Box grocery in appreciation of past patronage from Sun Towners, and was served free.

The Sun Town Factual Writing Class, which has been conducted by Volle Tripp, "graduated" on Thursday. It was so successful that plant are already under way to form another group.

The first three-axle trailer to park permanently in Sun Town was the 50 foot, 10 wide Golden Viking recently purchased by Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Hull of Palos Verdes Estates. On the same day Dr. and Mrs. J. H. McGraham of Long Beach arrived with their 10 foot Trail Feather which features a drop floor to make standing head room when parked and weighs less than 1,000 pounds.

Desert Hills

Tuesday afternoon the ladies met for their regular social. After making various plans for the balance of the season, several women played canasta, while others worked on their knitting. Coffee and cakes were served. Mrs. Steinberg and Mrs. Yelocan were hostesses for the afternoon.

Forty-eight gathered for the outdoor barbecue. Chefs were Wesley Fowler, Joe Yelocan and Earle Coleman, assisted by Mrs. Dorothy Coleman, together with a bun toaster Clara Yelocan. The women vied for acclaim with their recipes of vegetable salads, cold slaw, potato salad, baked beans, cup cakes and huge fruit platter of various fresh fruits.

The Herbert Langs of Lynwood California are here for the balance of the season, as are the C. M. Lytons of Riverside.

Saturday night a capacity crowd enjoyed the movies, "Engagement Party," "The Littlest Giant," and "A Penny Saved," as well as refreshments.

Weekend visitors were David Zimmers of Oakland, Robert H. Becker, West Covina, and Carl Bench, Arcadia, and Mr. and Mrs. John C. Gorman, Glendora.

Orchard Park

Passing through a snow storm country en route to California Mrs. Ellis Hauser, Mrs. Sam Turk and Miss Pamela Van De Voorde arrived here from Maywood and Elgin, Ill. Guests and relatives at the Roy Smith's mobile home, they are enjoying every moment of sunshine here.

Dean and Bonnie Mooneyham no sooner had their trailer set up than guests began arriving. On Thursday the Ray Williams from Pomona dropped in for the day and dinner, and on Saturday, the Mel Johnsons, also from Pomona, were also entertained for the day and dinner.

The Fredlunds showed their "stills," with pictures taken in Canada and Oak Creek Canyon most popular. Music, ukulele and guitar, was furnished by the Chibaro's from Los Angeles, who were weekendening in the park.

Mrs. Lottie Johnson, girlhood friend of Mrs. Estelle Highfields, is hunting a mobile home unit to suit her needs. She plans to sell their home in San Diego in anticipation of moving to Orchard.

There will be a showing of Cliff Henderson's pictures taken in Russia on Friday evening at Shadow Mountain Club for Rotarians and their wives. Henderson will tell his own story of this unusual trip.

150,000 FAMILIES HAVE ALREADY MADE THE MAGNIFICENT CHANGE TO

THE CLEAN WINGED STYLE OF BUICK '59!

Next time you look through your windshield at the unmistakably clean, sleek tail of a Buick '59... take a moment to envy its owner...

He owns THE Car... "hottest" thing on wheels today. He owns THE style that's farthest ahead both in public notice and in future trade-in worth.

He commands the most efficient automobile power plant in America today. (Buick's new Wildcat engines not only deliver an important increase in actual miles per gallon... but when you take car weight and performance into account, they get more out of each gallon of gas than any others.)

He stops with Buick's exclusive braking system. (Fin-cooled, front and rear, aluminum drums in front.)

When he wants to speed up or slow down, he feels the quick answers of the smoothest transmissions of all... (only Buick combines Twin Turbine* or Triple Turbine* transmission smoothness with Wildcat getaway).

But why not find out for yourself? This car's quietness of motion. Its comfort of roominess and ride. Its willingness to do exactly what you wish of it.

You'll live so much better in a Buick '59. Let your Quality Buick Dealer show you why... and how easily the man in the Buick could be... YOU!

Visit your Quality Buick Dealer soon. He's anxious to show you why your family belongs in the NEXT 150,000 to make the magnificent change to Buick '59!

*Optional at extra cost on some models.

TO OWNERS OF CARS IN "THE LEADING LOW-PRICED $" You'll be surprised how easily you can own a Buick Le Sabre instead! Be sure to ask your Buick dealer about "THE MOST IMPORTANT $200 IN THE AUTOMOBILE WORLD!"
